

Judith S. Freyman

Vice President
Western Occupational Safety and Health (WOSH) Operations

Judi joined ORC Worldwide in 2001 to direct the operations of the Western Occupational Safety and Health (WOSH) Group, a network of large corporate employers with significant operations in the Western States focused on environmental, occupational safety and health issues. The WOSH Group is affiliated with the ORC OSH Group, based in Washington, D.C., a network of more than 100 corporations with global operations.

Judi has more than 20 years of experience as an attorney and EHS manager for Fortune 500 corporations in the consumer products sector. She identifies EHS and employee wellness issues of concern to WOSH Group members, initiates contact and collaborates with state and local agencies, identifies and communicates best practices and monitors and participates in the regulatory process.

Judi has a J.D. from Loyal Law School in Chicago, IL and a Bachelor's of Journalism from the University of Missouri in Columbia, MO.

(September 2009)